Atonement presents Amahl and the Night Visitors

The Church of the Atonement is proud to present Amahl and the Night Visitors, one of the most popular American operas by Gian Carlo Menotti, at 5:00 p.m. on Sunday, January 29.

Amahl and the Night Visitors is a timeless story of the power of faith and the meaning of love. The one-act opera tells the story of Amahl, a poor crippled boy, who lives with his mother in a village somewhere on the road to Bethlehem. When the Three Kings, following the star in the East, seek shelter for the night, the lives of Amahl and his mother are changed forever.

Playing the lead role of Amahl is Tenafly High School junior, Maya Yaffee. The role of the mother will be played by Geralyn Keely and the Three Kings will be performed by Max DiFrancesco, Clyde Crewey and Steve Fredericks. The page role will be played by Wilson Reimers. The production is being directed by Jim Millar who will be at piano and accompanied by Bob LeClair on oboe. Jeff Pieper and Wilson Reimers are designing and constructing the set.

Tickets for this event are on sale now at the price of $20 for adults and $10 for senior citizens; admission for children 18 and under is free.
