

Calling All Artists!

Are you an artist waiting to be discovered, or a seasonal artist looking to display your talent? Whether you are an established artist or a novice looking for exposure, we are seeking exhibitors of all levels to display their creations at Church of the Atonement's Annual Arts Festival. The festival will begin on Friday, June 6th and will last until Monday evening, June 9th. A highlight of the festival will be a Gala Art Show opening with a wine and cheese reception on Friday, June 6th from 6 – 8:00pm. All works of art will be displayed in Fellowship Hall during the entire festival.

Artists may display up to three works. All art mediums are accepted, including ceramics, crafts, digital artwork, drawings, engravings, environmental art, fashion, glass, jewelry, metalwork, needlework, paintings, photography, sculptures, textiles, and woodwork. There are no age restrictions or booth fees, and exhibitors are not required to be present during the festival.

Each exhibitor must submit an entry form with their contact information, a brief description of the artwork and the suggested sale price if the piece is for sale. All hanging artwork must come ready to hang with the artist's name on the back and on the carrying case. The chairperson of the festival will be able to conduct sales in the absence of the artist. A free-will offering would be greatly appreciated in the event of a sale (5% to 10% of the sale price is suggested). Works of art may be dropped off at the church office.
